

Gen. Walker Resuming Testimony

STAT

Washington, April 5 (AP)—Former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker resumes his testimony today before a Senate subcommittee, in the wake of seven angry hours during which he blazed away at government officials—from President Kennedy on down. He contended the nation is following a policy "of 'no-win' and retreat from victory."

The tall Texan, who resigned from the Army after he was admonished on charges he tried to sway the voting of his troops in the 1960 Congressional elections, made his charges yesterday, blaming most of his troubles on civilians.

He aimed his heaviest fire at Adam Yarmolinsky, special assistant to Defense Secretary McNamara.

Of Yarmolinsky—one of those whom Walker contends made a "scapegoat" of him—a general said:

"His connections with communism have certainly been close and his activities have aided communism."

Yarmolinsky told a reporter he had nothing to do with the Walker case and that Walker's charges were irresponsible. "It happens that I have a public record as an anti-communist," he declared. "My public record goes in the opposite direction from these charges."

[Among other public figures Walker assailed were former President Eisenhower, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of Defense for Public Affairs; Eric Sevareid, Daniel Schorr and Walter Cronkite, radio and television commentators; Edward A. Murrow, director of the U. S. Information Agency; J. Edgar Hoover, New York Post columnist, and John Gunther, Henry L. Menck, Overstreet, Walter Willis and Joseph Morris, writers and editors.]

Testifying on Indochina

Walker is specifically testifying on Army indoctrination programs in troops. The committee is investigating alleged "subversive" activities of officers, sergeants, and enlisted men.

Walker said that during his time in the Army, he saw a large number of troops being indoctrinated in the number of troops, he said, were indoctrinated and assisted in the Party line. Walker said that he was last in the college and his campus po-
